

Conservatorium van Amsterdam
Amsterdamse Hogeschool voor de Kunsten

Research symposium

presentaties onderzoeksprojecten door masterstudenten jazz en klassiek

15 t/m 19 maart

conservatorium van Amsterdam

MONDAY MARCH 15

Sweelinckzaal

- 09.00-09.45 Simona Strungaru – Feeling Enescu: The influence of art on itself (lecture-recital)
- 09.45-10.30 Klaasje Nieuwhof – Interdisciplinarity in performance (lecture-recital – in Dutch)
- 11.00-11.45 Aleksandra Renska – The cello and the king of Prussia: Musicians, composers, and changing cello technique in the court of Friedrich Wilhelm II (lecture-recital)
- 11.45-12.30 Ji-Yun Kang – Underhand cello bow-hold: Exemplified in the Prelude from Bach's Cello Suite in D minor, No. 2 (lecture-recital)
- 13.30-14.15 Agnieszka Świątkowska – On the French and Italian hold of the bow: The influence of two contrasting bowing techniques on stylistic conventions in musical performances in the 17th and early 18th centuries. (lecture-recital)
- 14.45-15.30 Yukie Yamaguchi – Il violino piccolo: A study of the instrument and its repertoire, and an approach to performance (lecture-recital)
- 16.00-16.45 Ksenia Beltsiukova – The Belarusian violin concerto: History and development (lecture-recital)
- 17.15-18.00 Frances Elliott – Pick your parameters! How to learn to improvise as a classical performer (lecture-recital)

Amsterdam Blue Note

- 09.30-10.15 Enrique Peinado – Monk for the guitar (lecture-recital)
- 10.45-11.30 Moises Fernandes – Madeira folklore jazz: A fusion of two worlds (lecture-recital)
- 12.00-12.45 Victoria Davies – Analysing Cardew's Octet '61: the interpretation of a graphic score (lecture-recital)
- 13.45-14.30 Gabor Csongradi – Bartók and all that jazz: 20th-century art music techniques in jazz composition and improvisation (lecture-recital)
- 15.00-15.45 Reinier Baas – Outside (making wrong notes sound right): An introduction to chromatics in jazz improvisation (lecture-recital)
- 16.15-17.00 Thomas Bekhuis – Open up! A guide to the principles of alternate guitar tunings (lecture-recital)

Room 804

- 09.45-10.30 Ana Aguado – Charles-Marie Widor: The culmination of French organ-art in the 19th century. (lecture-recital)
- 16.00-16.30 Charlotte Marchandise – Composition, improvisation: Interaction in works of composer-organists Charles Tournemire, Olivier Messiaen and Thierry Escaich (thesis presentation)

TuesDAY MARCH 16

Sweelinckzaal

- 09.00-09.45 Joao Duarte – Schubert in Japan: The influence of traditional Japanese music on modern flute repertoire (lecture-recital)
- 10.15-11.00 Ljubomir Ryu Cipris – Georges Barrère: Tracing America's flute lineage (lecture-recital)
- 11.30-12.15 Robert-Jan Looysen – Uncovering the past: Analysis and performance of two compositions for horn by York Bowen (lecture-recital)
- 12.45-13.30 Ekhiñe Olano Schnabel – 'Euskal adarra': Basque compositions for horn and their relation with traditional music (lecture-recital)
- 14.00-14.30 Jaume-Blai Santonja Espinós – The development of timpani in the 19th century (thesis presentation)
- 15.00-15.45 Ramon Lormans – Majoring in Marimba: Ideas for a new study program (lecture-recital)

Amsterdam Blue Note

- 09.00-09.45 Christiaan Verbeek – ‘Score your murders like love scenes and your love scenes like murders!’ Film music as counterpoint, contrast, and comment (lecture-recital)
- 10.15-11.00 Daan Temmink – Drones: Origins, usages past and present, and studio techniques (lecture-recital)
- 11.30-12.15 Dániel Mester – Moving between the most consonant and the most dissonant: The music of Gábor Gadó (lecture-recital)
- 13.30-14.15 Olger Star – Against the reign of logic: Exploring surrealist music (lecture-recital)
- 14.45-15.30 Sean Winters – Contemporary storytelling: Examining the past, present, and possible future(s) of storytelling to help enlighten modern performance practices (lecture-recital)
- 16.00-16.45 Yaacov Arditi – What makes them tick? Sextet arranging à la Slide Hampton and Benny Golson (lecture-recital)
- 17.15-17.45 Jos Heutmekers – String instruments and jazz phrasing: An arranger’s and composer’s view (thesis presentation)

Theaterzaal

- 11.30-12.15 Enrique Mendoza – The electric guitar in film music: The dramatic uses and sound potential (lecture-recital)

wednesDAY MARCH 17

Sweelinckzaal

- 13.30-14.15 Mélisande McNabney – ‘Sonate, Que Me Veux-Tu?’ A survey of the keyboard sonata from its origins to 1750 (lecture-recital)

Amsterdam Blue Note

- 09.45-10.15 Ernst Klijzing – Working together alone: Collaboration between piano-accompanist and jazz-vocalist (thesis presentation)
- 10.45-12.00 Kiki Manders/Esther Kuiper – Vocal Improvisation: How can we learn to improvise like our examples? (lecture-recital – in Dutch)
- 12.45-13.30 Christopher Klassen – Vocal band: An instrumental approach for improvised vocal arrangements (lecture-recital)
- 14.00-14.45 Benedek Kiss – Five! Applying metric and rhythmic subdivisions in five to Western music (lecture-recital)
- 15.15-16.00 Humberto Albores – And tradition continues: The e-bass explores Mexico’s national song (lecture-recital)

Room 445

- 16.15-16.45 Michael de Graaf – Appetite for music! The motivation of musicians in (amateur) wind orchestras (thesis presentation – in Dutch)
- 17.15-17.45 Rolf Hoogenberg – ‘My first concert’: A plan to bring music (back) into elementary schools (thesis presentation – in Dutch)

thursDAY MARCH 18

Sweelinckzaal

- 10.15-11.00 Harimada Kusuma – Pentatonics on black and white: The influences of gamelan in Debussy’s piano music (lecture-recital)
- 11.15-11.45 Judith van Driel – Variations on a theme: Various interpretations of Bach’s Chaconne (thesis presentation – in Dutch)

- 12.15-12.45 Adrian Linares Reyes – The survival of rhetoric: Principles of discourse and their application to the romantic violin repertoire (thesis presentation)
- 13.15-13.45 Maria Milchtein – Music in emigration: Influence of emigration on composers and their music (thesis presentation)
- 14.00-14.30 Rafael Fraga – On the usage of pre-existing elements in composition (lecture recital)
- 15.00-15.30 Thanasis Deligiannis – Creative processes and cultural background: Discovering personal identity through composing (thesis presentation)
- 16.00-16.45 Erik Nestler – Trio lyrique: Music for saxophone, piano and a string instrument (lecture-recital)

Amsterdam Blue Note

- 09.00-09.45 Spyridon Manesis – Developing our own songbook: Arranging Lena Platonos's music for solo piano (lecture-recital)
- 10.15-11.00 Tine Grgurevic – Reflections on Claude Debussy (lecture-recital)
- 11.30-12.15 Svjatoslav Presnyakov – Rachmaninov's Etudes-Tableaux, Op. 33: A new audiovisual experience (lecture-recital)
- 13.00-13.30 Natalia Domínguez – The mechanics of a libretto: An inside view of the creation of a music theatre piece (thesis presentation)

frIDAY MARCH 19

Sweelinckzaal

- 09.00-09.45 Nadine van der Merwe – The booming bassoon: How to make the bassoon better known (lecture-recital – in Dutch)
- 10.15-11.00 Antonios Pratsinakis – Natural harmonics in education: A proposed method for cellists (lecture-recital)
- 13.00-13.45 Anna voor de Wind – Multiphonics on the Reform-Boehm clarinet (lecture-recital – in Dutch)
- 14.15-14.45 Ryanne Hofman – The odd one out: The history of clarinet vibrato through historical recordings (thesis presentation)
- 16.00-16.30 Max Knigge – Sounds and technique in contemporary viola playing: A Composer's Manual (thesis presentation)
- 17.00-17.45 Katya Woloshyn – Bach and Hindemith's solo viola sonatas ops. 11/5 and 31/4: The influences of Bach on Hindemith's compositions (lecture-recital)

Amsterdam Blue Note

- 10.00-10.45 Kaspars Kurdeko – Brian Blade: Painter of the groove interaction and dynamics (lecture-recital)
- 11.15-12.00 Víctor Trescolí Sanz – Silent Music: Federico Mompou's Música Callada (lecture-recital)
- 14.15-15.00 Sandra Simón Monje – Contemporary techniques for oboists and composers (lecture recital)
- 15.30-16.15 Sung-Su Kim – Marc Johnson's playing style in jazz improvisation (lecture-recital)

Room 604

- 10.30-11.00 Dimitrios Tigkas – Into the deep: A study of the violone and its broader family in the Baroque era (thesis presentation)
- 11.30-12.15 Johannes Möller – The fear of art, or the art of fear: An inquiry into stage fright (workshop)

Room 445

- 13.15-13.45 Sarah Aßmann – Musical crossroads. A geography of styles in 18th-century Germany (thesis presentation)
- 15.15-15.45 Daniël Kool – Classical musicians and stage fright: Explanations and treatments (thesis presentation – in Dutch)
- 16.15-16.45 Daniel Prajzner – TBA (thesis presentation)